

Information on our CQC rating

Tamar Valley Health's Care Quality Commission (CQC) rating is GOOD.

Callington Health Centre is the registered location for the Practice and Gunnislake Health Centre is now classed as a branch surgery by CQC. Therefore, the report written further to the inspection which took place on 8th December 2017 is for both sites.

You can view this report via the link on the home page of our website at www.tamarvalleyhealth.org or a copy is available for you to read if you ask at Reception.
