

Our new ordering system may not let you order your medication and may advise you that you need to see a GP. If you have not had an annual review letter, a pink slip or specific letter to this effect, then please request any medication you need in the notes section.

Click here to continue